features

Adult literacy and numeracy research and the demise of NCVER funding 3

by Pauline O'Maley

What happens now that the only targeted funding for adult literacy and numeracy research in Australia has come to an end?

Words on Wheels: a teacher's thoughts on community VCAL 9

by Louisa Vale

A project to help young rural students find ways to rediscover education also helped them 're-view' their own community and the wider world.

Underworld 14

by Karen Manwaring

An interactive, animated investigation into female reproduction? By detectives? With music?

regulars

Practical Matters 16

Lisa Bartels and Pauline Morrow outline their workshop, 'The Reaccredited CGEA—a focus on course-planning within a large provider', from the recent VALBEC conference.

Technology Matters 17

Getting to the point of PowerPoint with Debbie Soccio.

Open Forum 21

Dianne Parslow's short report on April's PD session, 'Implementing the new CGEA'.

Policy Update 22

ACE workers are undervalued and underpaid, says the NTEU's Michael Evans, while the VQA's Greg Deakin explains the outcomes-based quality standards for registered training organisations.

Foreign Correspondence 26

Restricted phone and internet access were the least of Dr Siobahn Bourke's challenges in India's northeast provinces.

Beside the Whiteboard 29

'Don't be afraid to try something new', said Glenda McPherson. And like a good teacher, she always followed her own advice.
