Author's note:

Much of the content I have included in the 'In the head' Calculations section builds on the ideas of Ruth Goddard, developed over her many years teaching adult numeracy in a wide range of settings. The section also uses ideas inspired by other Australian colleagues with whom I taught more recently in an East Timor, Ministry of Finance workplace training project, including: Penny Halliday, Stephanie Mitchell, George Anderberg and Jonathan West.

I have also drawn on methods developed during that project for the Percentages section of this publication.

I would like to thank Chris Tully, Rhonda Raisbeck, Digna Libera, and Shanta Nazareth for their efforts in proofreading and trialling many of the Activities and Student Practice Sheets prior to publication. I am also grateful to John Radalj and his students for ongoing support and input to practice sheets.
